Resolving cases for victims and their families for 55 years

The lawyers and staff at Subin Associates, many of whom have been with the firm for more than 25 years, combine tremendous experience working with a commitment to always keep clients informed of their legal options and the progress of their cases. This, along with the use of leading technology, helps the firm to achieve the most expedient and best possible resolution to significant personal injury cases.

A premier litigation firm, Subin Associates vigorously and thoroughly prepares every case for trial. Partners Herbert Subin, a frequent media legal commentator and Gregory T. Cerchione, a past bar president, are active in numerous professional associations and organizations, and are well-respected experts in the area of personal injury law. They have led the firm to numerous multimillion-dollar awards and settlements on behalf of their clients.
